

crepitations and wheeze in chest. Bloods showed normal counts with CRP:20.1mg/l. LFT/RFT were normal. Chest xray done showed bilateral paracardiac infiltrates. He was started on inj. ceftriaxone, nebulized bronchodilators and other supportive measures. Echo done was normal. Xray STNL done showed adenoid hypertrophy blocking 50% of airway, for which ENT consult was availed and advised mometasone nasal spray. GE scintigraphy done was normal. At discharge child is afebrile and is hemodynamically stable.

DISCHARGE MEDICATION :

Asthalin MDI(100mcg) with spacer and mask 2 puffs Q6H X 7 days.
Mometasone nasal spray 1puff both nostril at bedtime x 3months
Tab. Thyronorm(25mcg) 1/2tab-0-0 x to continue.
Tab. Hytrin(1mg) 0-0-1tab x to continue.
Syp.Tonoferon(80mg/5ml) 0-3ml-0 x3month(1hour before food).

PLAN ON DISCHARGE :

Review in Pediatrics OPD with prior appointment to Dr Sajitha Nair on 9/03/2023
OPD days-Tuesday/Thursday/Saturday.
ENT consultation on review.
Neurodevelopmental follow-up.

Prepared By: Dr.Anakha

Signed By: Dr. Kripa Dinesh Chandran

Content of the discharge summary will not be changed for any reason once the patient is discharged from the hospital. The receiver (patient / bystanders) are requested to go through the details and confirm the accuracy before leaving the hospital.

When to obtain urgent care :

Child's health deteriorating in terms of fever, activity, poor feeding, rash or generally unwell.

Please contact for emergency care:

Casualty No:0484-6681234
On Call Department Mobile:
Helpline No:

Fax No: 0484-6686035
Department email id: pediatrics@aims.amrita.edu